Tyler McChurch Memorial Scholarship Application 2017-2018 Academic Year

This scholarship was established as a memorial for Tyler McChurch, a 2007 Cumberland University graduate, who passed away in 2013 and will support Wilson County high school graduates, with a special emphasis on football, who demonstrate certain life skills that best resemble and represent Tyler. Applicants should be goal-oriented, have a strong determination to succeed, and character traits that reflect leadership and cooperation. The scholarship decision will include academic merit, but will also take into consideration other marks of student excellence such as involvement in athletics, extracurricular activities, school organizations and school functions. Spirituality will also be a significant consideration in evaluating applications for this scholarship.
